Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson Are Injured in Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson of this city were severely cut about the head and body and Mr. Jackson suffered a broken arm and probable internal injuries when the car in which they were riding collided with another automobile on the highway 9 miles north of Plainview about 10:30 Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and baby daughter, Gay, were returning to Canyon from Lubbock where they had gone to motor Mrs. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Rutledge, following the latter's visit here. The baby was thrown from the car but fortunately escaped injury.

Mrs. Jackson was driving, and according to reports, the other car, which by strange coincidence was said to be also occupied by a Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, swerved from the pavement, and in an attempt to regain the right-of-way drove too far to the left, colliding with the Canyon machine.

The occupants of both cars were rushed to the hospital at Plainview for emergency treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are still in the hospital there but are reported to be resting satisfactorily. Mr. Jackson is associated with the Imperial Chevrolet Company of this city.

Young Peoples' Night at Revival Friday Evening

Friday night will be Young People's Night at the Methodist revival meeting, according to an announcement made by Miss Mattie Mae Swisher who is in charge of the young people's division and the choir.

The young people of Canyon and the college are cordially invited to attend this service as special emphasis is to be placed on the problems of the younger generation. Rev. J. R. Parker of El Paso, who is evangelist in charge of the meeting, continues to attract large crowds to hear him each evening. He understands young folks and will be glad to talk with them and to give them his point of view on problems of the day.

"We have been especially successful," says Miss Swisher, "with the children and young people and we have surely been pleased at the large number who have been attending the daily meetings."

Wednesday evening was All States Night at which time those who attended were given an opportunity to tell their native states. The meeting closes with the services Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Furlow and children returned Sunday from a two week's vacation trip to Nacogdoches, Lufkin and Gladewater where they visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Marshall of Gainesville are visiting in the home of Mrs. Marshall's sister, Mrs. G. W. Bond, here this week.

73 Absentee Ballots Cast

A total of 73 absentee ballots were cast in Randall County by those who are out of the county or who will be out on July 23rd. Absentee voting closed Tuesday night.

Eighteen ballots were cast from Precinct 4, two from Precinct 3, two from Precinct 2 and fifty-one from Precinct 1. This is almost a record absent vote as last election year a record of 75 ballots were cast.

Many believe that the heavy voting by absentee voters indicates there will be an almost capacity poll in the voting of the first primary Saturday. A number of voters who are vacationing in other states cast their ballots by mail.

Farmers' Rally Day to Be Held in Amarillo

A Farmers' Rally Day is to be held Thursday, August 4, at the City Auditorium in Amarillo, according to an announcement made by Judge L. Gough of Amarillo. The rally will be held between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Among the speakers of the day will be John A. Simpson, National President of the Farmers' Education and Cooperative Union of America; Dr. R. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First Christian Church of Amarillo; Mrs. Phebe K. Warner of Claude, and Judge L. Gough and Bishop Seaman of Amarillo. Mayor Ross Rogers of Amarillo will welcome the farmers.

The farmers of the entire Panhandle are urged to come and bring their dinner baskets and spend the day. A good place will be provided to spread the dinners and an opportunity will be given to visit old friends and to hear talks by some of the outstanding men of the country.

English Dept. To Give Talks On Novelist

During the last six weeks of the summer term members of the English department of the College will give a series of short lectures on English and American novelists.

The first of these will be given Friday morning, July 22, at 9:30 with Miss Mattie Swayne talking on Hardy, the first of the modern English novelists. Wednesday, July 27, at the same hour, Miss Helen White Moore will talk on Conrad. These lectures will be given in Room 116 at the college.

The lectures are open to the public and all those interested are cordially invited to attend. The program for the remainder of the series will be given next week.

NED CAMPBELL OF RED CROSS VISITS HERE

Mr. Campbell Gives Instructions In Life Saving Wed.

Ned Campbell, representing the American Red Cross, spent yesterday in Canyon in work made possible through the co-operation of the Randall County Chapter of the Red Cross and the Physical Education department of the College. Miss Ruth Cross, is chairman of the Safety Education committee for this county.

Beginning at nine thirty, Mr. Campbell talked briefly to college students and townspeople concerning the safety program of the national Red Cross, saying that this work in the field of swimming began in 1913 when the statistics of a great life insurance company showed that 7,000 people lost their lives from drowning during that year.

Since that time the Red Cross has worked out a thorough program of swimming and life saving instruction, has given hundreds of life saving tests and has qualified examiners who may give these tests. Mr. Campbell emphasized that the moderately skillful swimmer who can think quickly is far better in an emergency than the person who is inclined to lose his head.

Nearly six hours of work was given those who were qualifying as examiners. The work included front and back approach rescues, the tired swimmers carry, and breaking various holds. Between tests Mr. Campbell explained the principles involved in each method of rescuing.

At the end of the tests Miss Mattie Jordan, Miss Ruth Cross, Robert Jarrett and Ashley Little were qualified as examiners.

At noon Wednesday a small luncheon party was arranged to give Mr. Campbell an opportunity to explain the Red Cross program. Those present were Dr. D. M. Stewart, chairman, Randall County Red Cross, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, Dean R. P. Jarrett, Mayor C. R. Burrow, Mr. Mitchell Jones, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. Wallace O'Keefe, Miss Ruth Cross and Mr. Campbell.

Following the luncheon a community safety program was outlined and Mr. Campbell stated that he would return at a later time to help in awakening community interest in safety education. So far as swimming is concerned, the Red Cross slogan is "Every person a swimmer; every swimmer a life-saver."

A week's course will be given next spring at the college.

Qualifications Of Texas Voter Are Announced

In order to be a qualified voter in Texas, one must be a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, a resident of the state for twelve months and of the county in which he offers to vote for six months and must have paid a poll tax, if subject thereto, prior to February 1.

One must be twenty-one years of age at the time he offers to vote. Therefore, you cannot vote in the primaries if you are not twenty-one years of age, even though you will be twenty-one before the general election.

Every person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty, not excepted by article 2559, who resided in this state on January 1, 1931, unless otherwise exempt, you must have a poll tax receipt for 1931 in order to vote in July, 1932, but if you were twenty-one years of age after January 1, 1931, you may vote in the primaries of July 1932 for the reason no poll tax has been assessed against you.

Voters over sixty years of age may vote in the county and in towns with fewer than 10,000 population without an exemption certificate.

The referendum vote on prohibition will not be held, according to A. M. Smith, County Chairman, as only one request for such a vote was received.

Political Rally In Amarillo Is Well Attended

The county political rally held Monday evening on the south side of Amarillo on the vacant lot west of the Black Lantern was well attended by both Canyon and Amarillo residents of Randall county.

Seats were arranged in the open and a platform and lights erected for the accommodation of the candidates. County candidates spoke first and the district and state candidates or their representatives were given an opportunity to speak later.

Fred E. Wortham of Canyon acted as chairman and introduced the speakers.

Miss Hazel Wineinger, accompanied by J. W. Shook and W. H. McKee visited Mr. and Mrs. Jackson in the hospital at Plainview Monday.

Mrs. Millard Word and children of Ende, N. M., are visiting in the parental S. L. Ingham home this week.

Mr. Hill gave a very interesting talk on his recent trip to the East in which he visited 16 states and the District of Columbia. He made special mention of the beauties of Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson, and the hills of Eastern Tennessee.

The Club Service Committee had charge of the program.

Mrs. W. A. Warren of Canyon was a visitor at the luncheon, and the following of Amarillo were visiting Rotarians: C. S. Makeig, Dr. B. M. Primer, W. A. McIntosh, N. S. Griggs, and Roy Burke.

Don Blanding, Vagabond Poet, Gives Lecture

Don Blanding, poet, actor and vagabond, spoke Wednesday evening to a large and appreciative audience at the auditorium of the College. This was the third lecture number of the summer.

Mr. Blanding whose home is in Hawaii, is a native of Oklahoma. He talked last night of the peoples, customs and country of Hawaii, reading a number of his own delightful poems from one of his published works, "Hula Moon." The lecturer has been spending the summer camping out-of-doors in and around the mountains of Taos, New Mexico and the college was very fortunate in securing him for a lecture here and he is booking no engagements this summer.

Mr. Blanding is widely traveled, having spent his life since his fifteenth year in roving over the world. He spoke with authority about the country of his choice and thrilled his audience with the accounts of his travels.

Long Ballot Will Make Returns Slow in The States

Following a custom of many years, The News will receive election returns Saturday night, both local, county wide and from over the state. As a member of the Texas Election Bureau, composed of daily and weekly newspapers, returns will be received from the various state races.

However, owing to the length of the ballot, returns will be very slow this year. It is not expected that returns on any of the state races will be very comprehensive Saturday night.

The News has asked all of the election judges in Randall county to report as quickly as possible, but some of the boxes will not be available perhaps until late Sunday morning.

The News invites all of the people to view its bulletin board, but do not become impatient with the slow returns, which are inevitable. County Chairman, A. M. Smith has joined with The News in urging that all boxes report as early as possible, in order that local elections may be complete Saturday night.

The following are the judges for the election Saturday:

The following will be all of the voting boxes of the county and the judges:

Carl Wesley, who has also had six years experience in mechanical work, will be employed by the firm.

Mr. Stockett and Mr. Ross announce that they will give all night service.

Mrs. Laurence Shuman and children returned last week from Wichita Falls where they have been visiting relatives for several weeks.

Candidates' Expense Accounts are Less

Second Expense Accounts Show Total of $1,686.98

Evidently present business conditions have had their effect on the candidates this year for, according to the second account of expenses filed last week with the county clerk, a total of only $1,686.98 had been expended up to July 14th by those seeking public office, while some $2,028.78 was spent before the Democratic primaries two years ago. This means a much less average expenditure by the candidates since there are 30 who filed expenses in the race this year and but 22 in the last election.

District candidates are required to file expense accounts only with the Secretary of State. There is but one district candidate residing in Randall county.

The amount of expenses filed by each candidate are as follows:

Welterweight Champ in Amarillo Tonight

Reynolds Has Held Championship Continually Since 1920

Jack Reynolds, welter weight champion of the world and looking the part, arrived in Amarillo Monday from Dallas for his title match with Blacksmith Pedigo, Kentucky strong man and throbber, at the Tri-State Fair grounds Thursday evening, July 21st, at Amarillo.

Reynolds who has held the championship with honor continually since 1920, announced he was prepared to show all his sensational skill. He will have to bear down, however, for the Kentucky Hercules is good enough to give anybody a tough time of it.

Amarillo is all agog over the Reynolds - Pedigo championship match. The famous "Fox of the Mat" has been the owner of the Richard K. Fox belt and acknowledged champion of the welterweights by 37 State Athletic commissions for the past 12 years.

Some one will have to invent something better than the "Rocking Cradle" hold if he is to be dethroned as the world's welterweight champion. The Cincinnati "Fox" (Reynolds' home city) isn't going to be beaten by wrist, arm or head locks.

Reynolds has had a most colorful career. He never minimizes his opponent. On the contrary he takes him seriously, and perhaps, that is one reason why he has held the championship all these years. Reynolds wrestled Pedigo about three years ago, which bout resulted in a draw, with Reynolds retaining the championship. The match went the limit, two hours and twenty minutes with neither man scoring a fall.

These are the points that has set the sport world afire over the big bout. Another thing, much in favor of the champ, he has never side-stepped a worthy opponent. Always ready to accept a challenge when the powers that be—OK, the details, Jack takes 'em on anywhere, anytime.

Jack Reynolds is not only a great champion and a skillful grappler, but he is a fine gentleman when out of the ring, and without doubt, ranks on a par with all great champions of the squared circle.

Wrestling fans throughout the Plains country will see Thursday evening one of the greatest mat (Continued on last page)

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

The July primary election will be held in Texas on Saturday of this week. The voters will be confronted with the longest ballot in recent years. Thousands of candidates are offering for office all over the state, with all kinds of pleas that they secure the suffrage of the voters.

One of the amusing things incident to the elections is the manner in which some of the candidates hope to get elected. Every conceivable device is being worked to sway the voters. Attempts have been made to create issues where there are no issues. The depression has served as an excuse for a volume of oratory that is meaningless and has no bearing on the duties of the office being sought after.

For instance, a candidate for some county office may speak at length about the iniquities of Wall Street, bankers, the soldiers bonus, currency inflation or whatnot; whereas, if he were so inclined and so equipped, he might give a concrete plan for reducing expenses of the office he seeks, or perhaps outline a comprehensive plan for improving the efficiency of the office.

The voters have a sacred duty to perform at the ballot box Saturday. Immaterial issues should be cast aside, and the real issues of the campaign presented, rather than personalities discussed. The real worth of the candidate lies in his reputation for honesty and fair dealing with his fellow man; in his ability to keep his feet firmly on the ground during periods of trial, such as we are now going through; in his ability to do things for himself, in his own business, rather than his vague promises to suddenly reform the government in whatever capacity he may seek to serve. Campaign promises are made to win votes, and unless the candidate has shown some ability to accomplish of his own accord, they count for little or nothing.

The voters this year have more brush to cut away, and more chaff to destroy in order to find the real merits of their candidates than ever before. Do not be deceived, but go to the polls and vote for the men and women who have shown fitness for office to which they aspire. Repenting after the ballot is cast is too late.

It seems that the first step toward becoming a movie star is to form an addiction for a popular brand of cigarettes.

FASTER THAN RADIO

(By Bruce Barton)

An unpleasant rumor began to circulate about a certain man. Such stories are an unsolved mystery. How do they start? What is the magic which spread them, faster than radio. You hear the tale in New York; you climb into an airplane and as you climb down in San Francisco you hear a voice exclaim: "What do you know about So and So?"

If the victim is famous of enviable reputation, the broadcasting is twice as rapid. In the instance referred to this was the case. Here are the comments of the first three men who hastened to tell me the story:

Number One: "It just shows that you never can tell. Who'd think that old X would be up to such tricks?"

Number Two: "I was terribly shocked. What in the world could he have been thinking about?"

Both these broadcasters, you see assumed at once that the man was guilty.

Number Three spoke with honest indignation. "I've known X for years. You can't make me believe that he ever did anything crooked. I don't care what the story is, I simply won't believe it."

The full facts came out a few weeks later and proved X an innocent victim. But the damage had been done.

There was a wise preacher in my boyhood who would say to the Sunday School: "Never believe what you hear and only half of what you see."

Much of what our eyes tell us is untrue. I see the sun move every day around the earth but, it does not move. I see that my cane, when I thrust it into the water, is crooked, but it is not crooked.

Eyes are notorious deceivers. And as for the ears, they need to be policed every minute by tolerance and sympathy and common sense.

Mr. X of whom I have spoken, had lived an upright life for forty years. Surely, this should have counted in his favor. Surely the answer of all his acquaintances should have been: "He's all right. He cannot have done it. We deny this libel."

The discouraging thing was that two out of three seemed to be secretly pleased that another good man had gone wrong.

Buffalo Mascot Redeems Former Lost Prestige

The name of the West is exonerated from any blotch on the character of its fighting element, the buffalo.

Some time ago the college mascot was driven back into the pen by a Jersey bull. The buffalo left that field of battle with head up-raised, but he did leave.

Last week the bull came back; evidently he thought that he had not had complete satisfaction. This time he invaded the buffalo's "santum domini." The irate Charles C. pawed the ground and waded in.

He knocked the Jersey off his feet with one mighty lunge and then commenced pummeling the bovine with his sharp hoofs.

The timely arrival of Mr. Boland was all that kept the college from having to buy another bull. When the buffalo had finally been driven back, the Jersey left the field the quickest way out.

Charles C., the oldest member of the college mascot family, has come back to our standards of a real buffalo. He has redeemed all of the honor which he lost in his earlier combat with the domestic male of the W. T. S. T. C. bovines.

Dr. Hill Asked to Speak at A. & M. Short Course Soon

President J. A. Hill has been asked to speak at the 23rd annual meeting of the Texas A. & M. College Short Course Monday, July 25. He is to speak at the county school superintendents' special conference.

The general theme for the conference is "Problems of Supervision" and the subjects which will be touched upon by Dr. Hill are: "What supervision should mean to the rural schools," "How to organize the supervisory program," and "Making of the supervisor's calendar."

Dr. Hill does not know whether he will be able to attend the Short Course or not.

Records of a bond transaction between a broker and Jimmie Walker in New York are missing. But that isn't half so surprising as if they were not missing.

Cantata Presented By High School

"In Foreign Lands" was the cantata presented at assembly Tuesday by the W. T. High School Chorus under the direction of Miss Ada V. Clark.

This cantata consisted of four parts, "On to Spain," "Egyptian Moonlight," "A Japanese Tea-Party," and "Romany Life." The chorus meets three times a week for twenty-five minutes. This is the first season that some of the students have appeared in the chorus or participated in a public recital.

Bride-Elect Is Honored Friday

Honoring Miss Irene Leseberg, bride-elect of Mr. Raymond Tucek, Mrs. Henry Meyer entertained Friday afternoon with a lovely surprise shower at her attractive country home northeast of the city.

The guests began to assemble at 2:30 in rooms fragrant with bowls of summer flowers, Shasta daisies predominating. The gifts were piled high on a table decorated in the honoree's chosen colors of orchid and white. A large wedding bell was suspended over the table.

Miss Leseberg, who had been brought to the Meyer's home upon a pretext, was taken completely by surprise by the presentation of the gifts. A delicious refreshment course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Henry Miller, Miss Herta Meyer, and Mrs. Fred Schutte.

Those present were: Miss Leseberg, honoree; her mother, Mrs. Gust Leseberg; Mrs. Joe Tucek, Mrs. J. J. Bauer, Mrs. E. H. Albers, Mrs. W. G. Rose, Mrs. Gene Root, Mrs. John S. To The Voters of Randall County!

By people who do not know what they are talking about, a great deal of criticism has been directed at the County Judge and the Commissioners' Court because everybody who wishes work has not been given a job on the State Highways now under construction in Randall County.

Neither the County Judge nor the Commissioners' Court has a thing to do with who works on roads constructed by State contract in this County or in any other county in Texas. The State and Federal Governments are paying for more than four-fifths of this work. The contracts are prepared and let by the State Highway Commission in Austin and enforced by the State and no one else. The State has here as elsewhere insisted upon the use of local common labor, and in all cases allows contractors to bring their skilled labor with them. The State has enforced these provisions fairly well. There are now more Randall County men at work on the highways than there are common labor jobs.

When the present County Administration arranged to get this work done this summer they felt that it would help the people live, and it has. About sixty Randall County men are now at work, but here is the rub—there are five times as many men wanting work as there are jobs. All who do not have work are "raising Cain."

Politically, we made a mistake in trying to have any work at all, but I think it was a good thing to do.

For Commissioner

Precinct No. 4

RANDALL COUNTY

I was assistant Cashier of The State Bank of Plainview several years before I came here. Formerly owned the Mauldin Dairy South of Amarillo. A home owner and tax payer of Precinct 4 for several years. Never held public office before, and asking your support for the first term as Commissioner No. 4, as against my opponent's five (5) terms or ten (10) years as commissioner and asking for the sixth (6) term. "I've often heard once to the pie counter, mighty hard to get them out."

If you see fit to elect me this time I will not ask for more than the "Democratic" two, consecutive terms.

My efforts if elected will be dedicated to a reduction of County expenses in every department to the end that taxes may be lowered and our County affairs put in better shape and the saving to the tax payers of every dime possible.

"Honesty in public office is possibly the greatest need of our nation today."

I maintain that my opponent has not done any thing while in office that I cannot do as well or better. No man has a corner on the ability to fill this or any other office.

We live in a democratic State, County and Precinct. I will appreciate it immensely if you will help me maintain this old "Democratic" principle of two terms, Saturday, by voting for me for my first term as against my opponent for sixth term.

I PLEDGE YOU AN HONEST AND EFFICIENT ADMINISTRATION IF ELECTED.

I THANK YOU.

For State Senator, Clint Small Of Amarillo

Senator Clint Small comes before the people of this District for re-election to a second term, not only on a platform, but also on a record.

Here are some of the main points of his record for the one term he has been Senator:

1. He sponsored what is known as the "Small Land Bill" and guided same to passage in the Legislature and then to repassage over the Governor's veto. Landowners of the Panhandle who had bought their land and held same peacefully for a life time suddenly found that selfish interests were striking at the titles to some of the most valuable lands. The conscience of the people was aroused. The Small Land Bill came to the rescue and made the land titles safe against this unfair attack. No greater service was ever rendered the people of the Panhandle.

2. Senator Small was the author of the Legislation reorganizing the penitentiary system.

3. He actively supported the bill at the last legislature which would have appropriated part of the State gasoline tax to lift the burden of highway bonds off the counties.

4. Senator Small stood firmly against the issuance of a huge series of highway bonds. He fought this dangerous proposal all over Texas when campaigning as a candidate for Governor two years ago. He renewed this opposition in the Senate and was very influential in defeating the proposition.

5. Senator Small was responsible for saving to the farmers of Texas the state gasoline tax.

6. He has been fair to labor. His record in this respect justifies the unanimous support of all those who believe in fair treatment toward labor.

When Clint Small is re-elected to the Senate:

1. He will be one of the recognized leaders in the Senate, with a State-wide acquaintance and influence, and occupy a favorable position to render to the people of this section unusual and effective service;

2. He will stand steadfast for the reduction of the cost of State government;

3. He will advocate reorganizations in State Boards and Departments;

4. He will advocate cutting down the top-heavy list of state employees;

5. He will favor every possible reasonable economy that can be placed in force;

6. He will continue to advocate, as in the past, that the burden of highway bonds must be taken off the counties.

Let's give him an overwhelming vote in appreciation for the faithful services he has rendered in anticipation of his continued efforts to place in effect needed economies and savings.

Fairbanks left today, according to reports, to fly over Arizona, New Mexico and the Panhandle of Texas in an effort to find in these western states a suitable location for his next film.

White Shoes Best for Late Summer

KID OPERA PUMPS AND OXFORDS, WITH HIGH OR MEDIUM HEELS, AND MATCHING BAGS, ARE GAY NOTE OF THE SEASON

BY HARRIET

YOU will be stepping along in the right direction, if you wind up the summer in a pair of white slippers. The last warm days have the effect of making you want to don light clothing when you leave the cool green water where you have been swimming, or forsake the tennis court and golf links.

All-white kid opera pumps and oxfords are among the fashion favorites. High cuban heels and medium height heels will give you the sort of stride you want for daytime wear. They are approved generally in the place of stilted heels. They are sophisticated enough, too, to take you to an evening party unless the party is strictly formal.

White leather slippers, which decorate themselves with a gay color and choose a matching bag, are another gay note of the shoe season. Red and white, blue and white, and other color combinations are popular.

White kid oxfords which use a discreet trim of white lizard or white suede are one of the smartest notes of the late summer season. Shoes which featured brown or black tips and toes have had to step back a row and give their place to the all-white duet. Two-colored shoes limit your gait, as they can be worn with costumes of only the two given colors.

COTTON gloves are growing more and more popular with the summer. Wash dresses, especially piques and ginghams, are increasing in favor, too. The quaintness of old-fashioned checks is taking some beguiling tricks. A blue and white checked gingham dress, worn with white accessories, including slippers, will appear delightfully cool and informal. If you change to blue accessories you will strike a formal note that will surprise you.

Sandals and oxfords are both popular. Choose the one you prefer. Slippers made from leather, which contain cutouts filled in with mesh, are cool and hold their shapes.

If you are feeling that you must wear the summer shoes you are buying, on into the fall and early winter, choose darker slippers. Lightweight oxfords in dark colors are getting ready to step to a leading position in the shoe parade as soon as the autumn moon gets back in the sky. With darker accessories they will make your light frocks as interesting as the white. You will strike an expectant fall note instead of a lingering summer one.

Lightweight woollens, which promise to be so popular this fall, will appreciate the new dark slippers. According to the style cards black is going to take about one-half of the fashion tricks this fall when it comes to coats and suits. Browns, reds that are dull rather than vivid, a green that catches its color from a forest, and a blue are also listed by fashion experts as popular for fall wear.

Two Open Dates Remain on 1932 Football Schedule

Coach "Sad" Sam Burton announces the signing of a contract with the coach of Oklahoma City University football squad to play the Buffaloes on November 19 at Canyon. This leaves only two open dates for the 1932 football schedule.

"We are short on material for the coming football season," commented Coach Burton on the season. We have some good men, but we are weak in the reserve string. There are three places to be filled in the line from last year—both guards and one tackle.

September 10 is the date for the beginning of the Training Camp. Only two open dates remain on the football schedule for next year, that of October 7 and the Thanksgiving game. Five games have been scheduled to be played at Canyon and three out of town.

Coach Burton announced the football schedule for 1932 as follows:

September 23—Simmons University at Canyon.

September 30—Panhandle A. & M. at Canyon.

October 7—Open.
October 14—Daniel Baker at Brownwood.
October 21—McMurray at Canyon.
October 28—Abilene Christian College at Canyon.
November 4—Sul Ross State Teachers College at Canyon.
November 11—New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell.
November 19—Oklahoma City University at Oklahoma City.

Consider This, Voters!

It is inconceivable that any man without teaching experience, or even a certificate to teach could be elected Superintendent of the Canyon Schools. Half the time of the County Judge is devoted to the supervision of 20 country schools and about half the salary he receives is for this work. When country schools are supervised by people who have had no experience in teaching or school work, we may expect "poor country schools" to remain poor country schools. Remember this when you go to vote Saturday.

Wooten-Lockhart Winners in Intra- Mural Tennis Meet

Clarence Wooten carried off the honors in the Intramural Tennis Tournament Wednesday when he defeated H. Gipson in the final bout of the singles division, and he and Vincent Lockhart won the doubles match by defeating R. Crouch and H. Gipson.

There were three teams left in the semi-finals of the doubles division Tuesday afternoon. H. Gipson and R. Crouch won the toss of a coin for the bye. Lockhart and Wooten defeated Bill Gipson and Brown, therefore meeting H. Gipson and R. Crouch in the final match. Lockhart and Wooten won the match in two straight sets, 6-2; 7-5.

H. Gipson defeated Guthrie and B. Gipson to win the upper bracket of singles and played Wooten, winner of the lower bracket, in the final match. This was one of the most spectacular matches of the tournament. Each player placed his shots showing skill and accuracy. Wooten finally submerging winner, after dropping the first set 2-6. He won the last two sets, 8-6; 8-6, after piercing Gipson's service with the score standing six all.

This is the first of the summer Intramural Tennis Tournaments which will be held during each summer session. All men of the college are eligible except letter men. The tournaments are being sponsored by the Intramural Sports Physical Education class taught by Mitchell Jones.

Eight Students Will Apply for Master's Degrees

Forty-two graduate students have been attending the first six weeks' term of the summer session according to a check made by Dean R. P. Jarrett; this does not include the special degree students who will probably apply for the M. A. degree in education at the close of the summer term.

This is the first year that work toward an M. A. degree has been offered by the teachers colleges of Texas. Twenty-four thesis outlines have been accepted this year according to Dr. Harris M. Cook who has charge of the graduate seminar.

The following eight students will probably apply for the M. A. degree at the end of the summer: Malcolm Hunt, who is writing his thesis on "The Relationship Between Scholastic Attainment and Social Conditions"; Clinton DeArmond, "Use of Local Material in the Teaching of Biology"; Albessa Stephenson, "A Study of the Compulsory School Laws of Texas"; Law Sone, "Business and Educational Administration of an Oil-Field School System"; Jonnie Rowan, "A History of the West Texas State Teachers College"; Mable Rowan, "Status of the Course in Instrumental Class Instruction in the Public Schools of Certain Selected Cities in the United States"; Wilhelmina Oberst, "Nature of Vocabulary Studies in the Seventh Grade as a Special Study in English."

Other graduate students are enrolling for the last six weeks' term.

CANYON CITY CLUB NEWS

Jack Bush, Pro and Manager of Wolflin Golf Course in Amarillo, has invited Canyon golfers to be his guests next Sunday at 2 p. m. Jack says he will have opposition for the boys and wants at least twenty players to visit him. All club members who can make the trip are asked to notify Oscar Gano, phone 111. Players are expected to be at Wolflin not later than 1:30 so that the match may commence at two o'clock.

Very little fishing is being done at the club at present, fishermen complaining it is too hot to sleep during fishing hours.

The fairways are baked and hard again and the boys are bragging about the distance they are getting on their tee shots.

Jimmie Gamewell, who has just returned from a trip to Dallas, brings back the information that the golf courses in Dallas are just as hot as the course at the Club, with only a sprinkling of players showing their wares.

J. P. Hix who plays at least two games of golf each year, says his harvest is about over and that he will surely play his other game this fall, probably in October.

Members of the golfing committee advance the idea that golfers study the rules of the game as laid down by the U. S. G. A. as well as those made for the club; applying them to their game in practice as well as in league matches.

LADY OF LAS VEGAS

By Elvia Davenport

How lovely you are, lady of Las Vegas!

A dream within a dream on a beautiful night

When stars are smiling and the little moon

Peeps through her veil of clouds at lovers.

You are romance, lost with gay galleons on the Spanish Main.

You are roses and the perfumes of all the roses!

Proud and sweet you sit with trailing robes,

The lace about your face hiding,

... Ah, lady,

Does it hide a smile in shadowed eyes,

A smile my heedless heart holds half afraid?

The little mountain stream, a wayward, reckless thing,

Wears sometimes in its heart a fragile star!

Then may not I, a wanderer, follow lower of dim trails,

Bear with me as I go, star-like, a dream?

NEAR THE TOP OF THE LIST

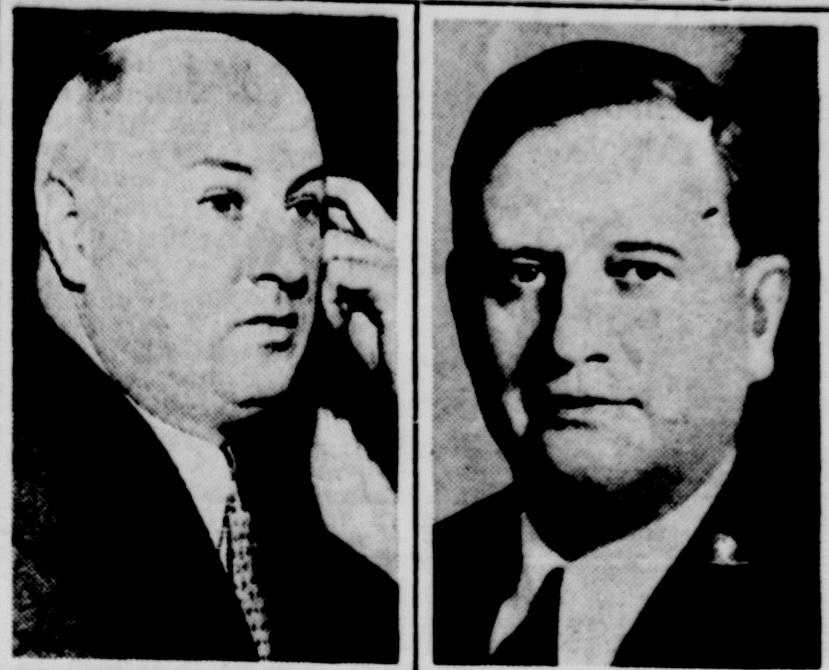

One of the things that must be done before we can enjoy a return to normal conditions is to adopt a policy of more fair and equitable treatment of our railroads. This also means fair treatment for the general public.

Last year the lines earned only 2 per cent return on their investment—the smallest return on record. If depression alone had caused this, as was the case with other business, it would be comparatively unimportant. But, as a railroad spokesman recently pointed out, it was the final result of developments occurring over a long period of time.

The Transportation Act has been in effect eleven years. It was passed, not only to safeguard the public interest, but to permit the roads a return of 5 3-4 per cent, and to make regulation more constructive than it has been. Yet in those eleven years, the lines have been able to earn an average return of only 4.1 per cent—while in the eleven years from 1897 to 1907, inclusive, they earned 4.95 per cent, and between 1907 and 1917, 4.92 per cent. Consequently, the roads, since the war, have been unable to earn enough in good times to tide them over bad periods.

The greatest single menace to

To Direct Election Campaigns

Whether Herbert Hoover or Franklin Roosevelt emerges victorious from the presidential election this fall depends largely upon the efforts of these two men, James A. Farley, left, and Everett Sanders. For Farley, prominent Manhattan politician and chairman of the New York Boxing Commission, will manage Roosevelt's election campaign, while Sanders, one-time private secretary of President Coolidge, will direct the drive for Hoover's re-election.

railroad prosperity and stability is unfair competition. Busses and trucks through our highways and operate under mild or unequal taxation and regulation in comparison with the railroads. Barges operate on the waterways, subsidized by the government. It is no wonder that the best economic authorities place the railroad problem near the head of the list of the important issues we now face.

I trust that the forthcoming conference at Ottawa may be crowned with success and that the United Empire may once more by its example lead the way to a solution of the grave problem confronting the world today.—King George V of England.

22 YEARS IN RANDALL COUNTY

Economy Efficiency Experience

A Frank Statement

I have not made a campaign in Randall County this year because I believed that my 22 years as a citizen of this county meant more to the voters than any statement I might make to you in a personal solicitation. My reputation as a citizen stands for more than any words I might say to you during a campaign talk, or any arguments which may be directed against me.

My record as a member of the Legislature is in keeping with my dealings with the citizens of this county. I have tried to do the very best things for this district—just as you would have wished them done, working ever with a view of economy in state affairs, as I have tried to do in everything with which I have been connected in Canyon.

As Chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses I saved the taxpayers $50,000 in the last session of the Legislature.

As a member of the Appropriations Committee I saved the taxpayers another $50,000 by a provision regarding the buying of supplies for the departments of State.

Through my efforts the appropriation bill was passed for the Museum building—the only building allowed by the Legislature and Governor during the last session.

I have stood always for those things which were good for West Texas, and opposed those things which were bad for our section.

As your neighbor and friend for the past 22 years, I am asking that if my record is in accord with your wishes, and if I am the type of man you would like to have as your State Representative, I shall greatly appreciate your vote next Saturday in the Democratic Primary.

This is a very personal solicitation, and I hope that you will accept it as such.

Yours very truly,

CANNING HINTS

(Editor's Note—These recipes for canning are given by Miss Sadie Kate Bass, home demonstration agent for Randall County, and are especially seasonable for use at this time of the year. It is suggested that they be clipped and placed in your recipe cabinet for reference now and in the future.)

Beet Relish

1 quart chopped cabbage
1 quart cooked, chopped beets
1 cup grated horseradish
2 cupfuls sugar
1 tablespoonful black pepper
4 tablespoonfuls salt.
Mix ingredients, and cover with vinegar, heat mixture to the boiling point. Pack in jars and seal.

Pickled Onions

Select small onions and sort into different sizes. Peel and cover with a 10 per cent brine. (A 10 per cent brine is made by dissolving 2 cups of a good coarse salt in nine pints of soft water. This gives a reading of 40 on the salinometer.) Keep the brine at this strength until the onions have fermented and cured. It will take six weeks to two months for them to cure, depending on the size of the onion and the temperature. A perfectly cured specimen will be a uniform, clear, translucent color throughout when cut. The presence of white rings in an indication that they are not cured. When cured, remove from the brine and soak in clear water over night to remove excess salt taste. Pack into jars and cover with a cold, spiced vinegar.

Spiced Vinegar

½ gallon of 5 per cent vinegar
1 cupful of sugar
1 tablespoon of celery seed
1 tablespoon of mustard seed
1 tablespoon allspice
1 small stick cinnamon.

The whole spices in a cheese cloth bag. Drop in vinegar and sugar—let come to simmering heat, cover and let infuse. If the vinegar is kept at this heat for several hours it will be stronger of the spices.

Note: More sugar may be added if a sweeter pickle is desired.

Chopped Pickled Onion

Large onions may be cured out in the same strength brine, chopped with the three bladed knife of the food chopper and covered with the same spiced vinegar. Both may be garnished with a strip of red pepper on opposite sides of the jar when packed.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Mel Sheppard, Olympic Star of Old, Favors "Blazing Ben" Eastman as the American Who'll Win Two or More Olympic World Titles This Year

BY PHILIP MARTIN

FROM 1896 at Athens in the shadow of Olympus through 1928 at Amsterdam, close on the Zuider Zee, our Olympic record books are sprinkled generously with names of American athletes who gained two or more world championships in one set of games.

Another Olympiad, 10th in the modern revival of the ancient Greek games, is now standing by to unfurl the banners of 50 nations at the Los Angeles pageant of sports. And this prompts the question, "Has any American boy a chance in 1932 to add his name to the list of double winners?"

The answer is an emphatic "Yes." Half a dozen young men may prove strong enough to win a pair of titles this year, and thus join up with Kraenzlein, Hahn, Lightbody, Hillman, Ewry, Burke, Craig, Pilgrim, Prinstein, Sheppard, Tewksbury, Baxter, Sheridan and Osborn, men of other years who turned in "doubles," some of them more than two triumphs.

ACCORDING to Sheppard, the "Peerless Mel" Sheppard who out-footed the Olympic 800 and 1500-meter fields at London in 1908, our best bet for two victories this year is Ben (Bangs) Eastman, stringy Stanford star. Eastman from his records is the best quarter and half-mile in the world. Proving it in the Olympic 400 and 800-meter events may be another thing, however.

We have others, too. I would say Eddie Tolan, Emmett Toppino and Ralph Metcalfe, sprinters, must be given the chance, although the success of one would mean the failure of the others. Glenn Cunningham of Kansas, mile and half-mile, to win a double victory in the 800 and 1500-meter races, first would have Eastman to dispose of in the shorter race.

Another boy whose doubles chances I like very much is George Saling, University of Iowa's 1932 track captain and star hurdler. Saling is a star over the 110-meter high hurdles and he has the speed and endurance for the 400-meter low barriers. No man has ever won both hurdle titles, but if it is done this year, Saling looks like the fellow to accomplish it.

Among the several American athletes credited with having the best chance to cop one or more world championships in one set of Olympic games this year, are George Saling, left, and Glenn Cunningham, shown in action photos above. Saling, Iowa U's 1932 track captain and star hurdler, really knows his "sailing," while Cunningham is Kansas' star mile and half-mile.

THIRTY-TWO years ago, Alva C. Kraenzlein, one of the greatest of Pennsylvania's long line of track and field stars, raced to victory in the 60-meter dash, the 110-meter high hurdles and the 200-meter low hurdles, then got off a long leap to win the running broad jump, all this at Paris. Several since Kraenzlein have won three titles in one year, but none has equaled his amazing performance.

In the period from 1900 through 1908, R. C. Ewry, a rangy, raw-boned American husky, won 10 Olympic titles, more than any other athlete in Olympic competition. But even with 10 championships, he could bunch no more than three in one year. This he accomplished twice, in 1900 and 1904, when he won the standing high and broad and hop-step-and-jumps. Four times in a row—1900, 1904, 1906, 1908—Ewry won the high and broad jump titles. Twice, in 1900 and 1904, he took the hop-step-and-jump.

Although these events have since been taken from the Olympic program, Ewry's winning effort of 11 feet 4 1/4 inches in the standing broad jump at the St. Louis Olympics of 1904, still stands as a world record.

battles of all time. Here's a strong man who can break holds as easily as you could break a small stick, wrestling a man who is all skill, science and endowed with a world of flash and speed. Truly it will be a thrilling tilt.

Pedigo will prove to be a tough customer for the Champ. The Kentucky Power House winning every bout in Amarillo, excepting one, which he lost to Cyclone Mackey. But, this was due to the Blacksmith being under the weather with a severe cold and not properly acclimated to the Plains mile high altitude. He has built up a reputation from coast to coast, from the great lakes to the Gulf for his feats of strength and ability to break punishing holds.

Other mat stars will support the main event, such as Chief Little Wolf, Osage Indian, and Haskell's all star athlete; Rob Roy, popular Southwestern wrestler, who hails from Goodnight; Pancho Vitella, "mad man of the mat" from Old Mexico, and Roy Welch, strong boy from Borger, who can put and take with the front seat ear-twisters. Its an all star show combined with the welter-weight championship of the world. The public does not want more entertainment, but they want better entertainment, and folks, here it is—a card that would make Madison Square Garden jam the box office.

The big show takes place at the Tri-State Fair grounds, Amarillo, July 21st.
